

Campus Support and Reporting Resources: When and Why to Use Them

SPEAKUP

If you want to submit anonymous feedback or concerns to a department on campus, use this tool to voice your input.

Who can report:

Students

Contact for more info:

Student Government Association

OXFORD COUNSELING AND WELL-BEING

If you're in need of individual or group counseling services, or want to access support through TimelyCare.

Who can contact:

Students

Contact for more info:

Daisja Dukes

BIAS SUPPORT SERVICES

If you're experiencing or witnessing bias, this resource addresses bias in the student experience and offers support. It also allows you to report incidents related to campus policies or Emory events.

Who can report:

Students

Contact for more info:

Natalie Raymond or Claudia S. Zanjanchian

EMORY COUNSELING & PSYCH. SERVICES

For confidential counseling, Emory CAPS offers 24/7 mental health support. Students can speak directly with a professional at any time to address their needs, receive guidance, and create a plan for next steps.

Who can contact:

Students (when on the ATL campus)

Contact for more info:

404-727-7450 (anytime)

INCIDENT REPORT

If you experience or witness non-academic misconduct involving Emory University students (e.g., fighting, harassment, drug use, etc.), report it to ensure appropriate actions are taken.

Who can report:

Students, employees, visitors*

Contact for more info:

Natalie Raymond

TITLE IX

If you or someone you know has been sexually assaulted or requires information about sexual misconduct resources/support, contact Title IX for guidance. It's okay if all you want is a list resources from Title IX.

Who can report:

Students, employees, visitors*

Contact for more info:

Lauren Braun or Molly McNamara

OXFORD CHAPLAIN

If you're seeking personal, spiritual, or emotional support, this confidential resource is available to help navigate life transitions, stress, or grief.

Who can contact:

Students, employees

Contact for more info:

Lyn Pace

STUDENT OF CONCERN

If you're concerned about someone's well-being or need to connect them with support, this resource links them to appropriate help.

Who can report:

Students, employees, visitors*

Contact for more info:

Danette Edwards

THREAT ASSESSMENT REPORT

If you feel targeted by a potential threat, know someone who poses a threat, or witness concerning behavior, use this resource to report.

Who can report:

Students, employees, visitors*

Contact for more info:

Dean Darlery Cepin

OPEN EXPRESSION OBSERVER PROGRAM

If you're planning an event and want to ensure compliance with the open expression policy, you can request support here. Contact Claudia if you have questions about the policy.

Who can contact:

Students, employees

Contact for more info:

Claudia S. Zanjanchian

HONOR CODE

If you've witnessed academic misconduct or have information suggesting such an act has occurred or was attempted, use this resource to file a report.

Who can report:

Students, employees

Contact for more info:

Course instructor or Dean Valerie Molyneaux

EMORY TRUST LINE

If you need to report ethical, legal, or business misconduct confidentially, this third-party service allows you to do so securely.

Who can contact:

Students, employees

Contact for more info:

1-888-550-8850 or 404-403-6991

OMBUDS

If you need a confidential space to discuss conflicts or ethical concerns informally, Ombuds help you explore options and develop strategies before pursuing formal processes.

Who can contact:

Students, employees

Contact for more info:

Lynell Cadray or Brian Green
or text "Ombuds" to 678-403-6991

GOVERNMENT & COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

If you have questions about engaging in political activities as an Emory student or employee, contact this office for guidance.

Who can contact:

Students, employees

Contact for more info:

Megan Hulgán (students)
Laura Gafnea (faculty/staff)

ANTI-HAZING POLICY

If you have experienced, suspect, or witnessed hazing, this resource allows you to report it and get support.

Who can report:

Students, employees, visitors*

Contact for more info:

Michaela Foronda

If you are in danger due to a hazing incident and/or need to report a hazing incident in progress please contact EPD 404-727-6111.

EMORY POLICE (OR RLC ON CALL)

For after-hours emergencies where someone is at immediate risk of harm, this resource offers immediate assistance.

Who can contact:

Students, employees, visitors*

Contact for more info:

EPD (770) 784-6111

Campus Support and Reporting Resources: When and Why to Use Them

FACULTY ADVISORY COUNCIL (FAC)

If you're a faculty member with concerns or significant issues, this body ensures confidentiality and offers support through senior leadership.

Who can contact:

Faculty

Contact for more info:

Division Chair

24-25 FAC Members:

Dr. Henry Bayerle

Dr. Julie Hulgán

Dr. Sharon Lewis

Dr. Jasminka Ninkovic

FACULTY STAFF ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

If you're seeking emotional, behavioral, or workplace health support as an eligible faculty/staff member, FSAP offers free and confidential services.

Who can contact:

Faculty, staff, physicians,
benefits-eligible family members

Contact for more info:

Lindsey Van Note

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

If you are a faculty or staff member experiencing general or specific matters pertaining to work-related issues and concerns, this resource is available to provide counsel, guidance and advice to employees, supervisors and leaders.

Who can contact:

Faculty, staff

Contact for more info:

Lindsey Van Note

HUMAN RESOURCES

For confidential counseling, Emory CAPS offers 24/7 mental health support. Students can speak directly with a professional at any time to address their needs, receive guidance, and create a plan for next steps.

Who can contact:

Faculty, staff

Contact for more info:

Lindsey Van Note

TITLE VII

As faculty or staff, if you know of a colleague who experienced discrimination or harassment based on any factor prohibited by law, including sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression and/or you would like information about available resources/support.

Who can report:

Faculty, staff

Contact for more info:

Lindsey Van Note

